

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

GHANA NATIONAL PETROLEUM CORPORATION

GNPC: STAY ON THE WINNING WAYS

Petroleum House, Tema, 20th January, 2017: The Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC), Headline Sponsor of the Black Stars, has urged the team to stay on the winning path they have taken as they meet their Malian counterparts in their second Group D match at the ongoing AFCON 2017 in Gabon.

Congratulating the team for beating their Ugandan counterparts in their opening Group match, GNPC expressed confidence in the Stars, urging them to again focus on victory in Saturday's match to consolidate their mission with eyes on the prize.

Acting Chief Executive Officer, Alexander Mould in a message to the team, said: "We wish you success in your game against Mali and are confident that you will stay on the winning way you have charted, to make Ghana proud again."

"Work hard, with your eyes on the prize – to bring back the African Cup to Ghana," Mr. Mould added.

Issued by: The Corporate Affairs Department, Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC), Tema.
Email: info@gnpcghana.com; Tel: +233 303 206020

Editors' Note

About GNPC

The Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC) is Ghana's National Oil Company (NOC) established in 1983 by PNDC Law 64, to undertake the exploration, development, production and disposal of petroleum. The Corporation, which started operations in 1985, is the anchor partner in all Petroleum Agreements in Ghana and operator of the Voltaian Basin Project. GNPC is also the National Gas Aggregator in Ghana, and is working to ensure sustainable supply of efficient fuel to meet Ghana's increasing energy needs. GNPC is the Headline Sponsor of the Black Stars.

